MRS. SAMUEL BEDOLLA

Yosemite Honeymoon Follows Nuptials

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Bedolla, are now honeymooning in San Francisco and Yosemite following their wedding, Saturday, at the Nativity Catholic Church.

The bride, the former Miss Virginia Montez is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve A. Montez of 1627 W. 209 St. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Maria S. Bedolla of San Pedro.

Father A. Glum officiated at the 10 am. service with the bride wearing an original Vasque wedding gown, escorted to the altar by her father.

The gown fashioned in the style of the 16th century was of imported French Chantilly lace and English nylon tulle and featured a queen collar and long train.

Miss Rosie Chacon, wearing a dress of blue lace with scalloped hem and neckline, served as maid of honor.

Misses Kathy Lopez, Sandy La Guardia and Dorothy Mora, bridesmaids wore pastel colored gowns identically styled to the Maria Helena dress worn by the maid of honor.

Rosalie Diaz dressed in a blue frock served as flower girl and David Torres as ring bearer.

The bridegroom chose Tony Chacon to serve as best man. Completing the wedding party

MISS MARTHA HENRY

Fellowship to Hear Community Center Speaker

The regular monthly meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church will be held Tuesday at 9:30 a.m.

The speaker will be Mrs. Opal Jones, executive secretary of the Avalon Community Center, Los Angeles. She will speak of "The Community Center: A Social Agency with the Church."

The Center is a place for the whole family from adolescent to grandfather. It is a place to play, work and plan for better living conditions for the neighborhood, housing, health, recreation and good citizenship.

The center strives to help each individual develop to the fullest and to promote intercultural understanding, goodwill and brotherhood and appreciation for cultural heritage. When an individual or a group needs specialized help, the Center refers them to the proper public or private agencies.

The Martin Group will be hostesses for the brunch. A nursery is provided.

HEART FUND TOTAL

Torrance residents contributed $2324 in the recent Heart Fund campaign, according to Mrs. R. E. Shaffer, Heart Sunday chairman. William T. Peterson led the business campaign here.

Nuptial Vows Unite Overman and Dumais

Miss Gloria L. Overman exchanged wedding vows at a recent July ceremony with Bertrand M. Dumais at the St. Cross Episcopal Church, Hermosa Beach.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Collins of Raton, Colo., was given in marriage by her father.

For the ceremonies uniting her to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dumais, 17325 Arlington St., the bride wore a blue brocade sheath, featuring a silk organza overskirt.

A matching head veil held in place by a Juliet cap completed her bridal attire and she carried a French line bouquet of stephanotis centered with a removable orchid corsage.

Mrs. John Gray, gowned in pink and carrying a pink carnation bouquet, served as matron of honor. Rev. Richard I. S. Parker, officiated at the services with John Gray as best man and Michael B. and Merrill Collins, cousins of the bride, ushers.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Suzanne Dumais, the bridegroom's sister, registered the guests which included Mrs. Richard Brown, the bride's sister from Fort Collins, Colo.

Wilhelmina B. Collins, aunt of the bride assisted as hostess.

Young Mrs. Dumais is a graduate of Colorado State University. The bridegroom graduated from El Camino College and is now employed as recreation director at Sea Aire Park.

The couple are now at home at 1456 Manhattan Ave., Hermosa Beach following their honeymoon in San Francisco.
